

Stand-up Pouches

BY SHIELDS®

Stand-up pouches are one of the most versatile packaging solutions in the market today. Available in a variety of shapes, sizes, material and barrier options, stand-up pouches are a convenient, lightweight packaging option. Our full-color Flexo printing can help differentiate your product with eye-catching visuals on the retail shelf.

At Shields, we know time is valuable. We pride ourselves on dynamic service levels tailored to meet the unique needs of every client. Our team is committed to ensuring precision and consistency in manufacturing your product. With our flexible approach and unwavering attention to detail, you can trust us to deliver excellence with every order. Your complete satisfaction is our highest priority.

Shields® stand-up pouches are ideal for almost any CPG market - including food processing, foodservice, confectionaries, pet care, pet food, lawn & garden and health & wellness.

We offer a variety of barrier properties to prolong shelf life and add protection from moisture, oxygen, light, and even odor.

Sustainable options are available, including recycled content and recyclable materials.
